SUMMARY

Dedicated and results-driven Web Developer with a strong foundation in full-stack development, recognized for academic excellence and real-world project leadership. I began coding at 13, which led to graduating as the Most Outstanding Student and Most Outstanding On-the-Job Trainee in BSIT Web Development at Holy Angel University. During my internship, I was personally chosen by the Head of the Institutional Database Management Office to independently design and develop a custom employee portal—showcasing my ability to deliver complete solutions with minimal supervision.
